

Quiz #3

nomen

Latin 102

Part I: The Fifth Declension Decline res, rei, f.

	Singular	Plural
Nom.	rēs	rēs
Genitive	rei	rērum
Dative	rei	rēbus
Accusative	rem	rēs
Ablative	rē	rēbus

Part II: Verb Synopsis

Conjugate the following verb in the 3rd Person Singular Active and Passive Indicative in ALL TENSES: ducō, ducere, duxī, ductum

Tense	3rd Singular Active Indicative	3rd Singular Passive Indicative
Present	ducit	ducitur
Future	dulet	ducetur
Imperfect	ducēbat	ducēbatur
Perfect	ducit duxit	ductus est
Future Perfect	duxerit	ductus erit
Pluperfect	duxerat	ductus erat

duco ducis ducit

↑ for a masculine gender

Part 3: Translate the following paragraph. [20 points]

Turmoil After the Defeat of the Conspirator Catiline

Cicerō orationem civibus dare cupivit, et in foro ante vulgum ^{perfect}stetit. magna turba civium venerat, nam Catilina ^{atque} necatus erat, et omnes cives Rōmānī metū ^{atque} oppressi erant.

haec verba ab eō dicta sunt: "O cives Rōmānī, habete nihil metus; nostra res publicā, nostra civitas, nostra patria ^{repta} sunt ex periculō atque conservabuntur.

Catilina ab hōc mundō discessit—nunc (ad finem) malōrum temporum venimus. (ā vestrō) consule iste coniuratus ^{victus} est, et nōs periculō liberati sumus ille, civis ^{qui se hostem fecit} mortuus est."

Catilina, -ae, m: "Catiline" [Lucius Sergius Catilina, a Roman citizen who attempted to overthrow the ruling class in 63 BCE] forum, ī, n. forum, marketplace, (open space where people gathered to talk, near the senate house in Rome)

mortuus-a-um: "dead"

oratio, -ōnis, f: "speech"

coniuratus, ī, m. "conspirator"

liberare

civis, civis

an ans

to be free about or erepro rescue

being rescued

(Write your translation in this space.)

Cicero wished to give a speech to the citizens, and he stood ~~in~~ in the marketplace before ~~the mob~~. A great mob of citizens had come; for Catiline had been killed, and all the Roman citizens had been overwhelmed with fear. These words were said by him;

"Oh Roman citizens, have no fear; our republic, our state, our fatherland was rescued from danger and will be preserved, Catiline departed from this world - now we come to the end of wicked times. The conspirator was conquered by your (pl) Consul himself, and we are ~~to be~~ freed from danger. That man, a citizen who made himself an enemy, is dead."

actually plural but I thought this was singular

↓
right, and sometimes in Latin there will be more than 1 subject but still have a singular verb, "attracted" to the last nom. in a series.

+49.75
great!

Part IV, Grammar Questions:

1. What kind of ablative is 'metū'?
Means
2. Parse conservabuntur
Future, 3rd person, plural, passive, indicative
3. What kind of ablative is 'periculō'?
Separation